

DIRECTIONS TO BROMLEY FOOTBALL CLUB,
HAYES LANE, BROMLEY
TELEPHONE: 020 8460 5291

For Clubs using M25 Motorway

Leaving M25 at Junction 4, follow A21 to Bromley and London, for approximately 4 miles and then fork left onto A232 s/p Croydon/Sutton.

At 2nd set of traffic lights turn right into Baston Road (B265), following it for about 2 miles as it becomes Hayes Street and then Hayes Lane. Bromley FC is on right hand side of road just after a mini roundabout. There is ample room for coaches to drive down driveway, turn round and park.

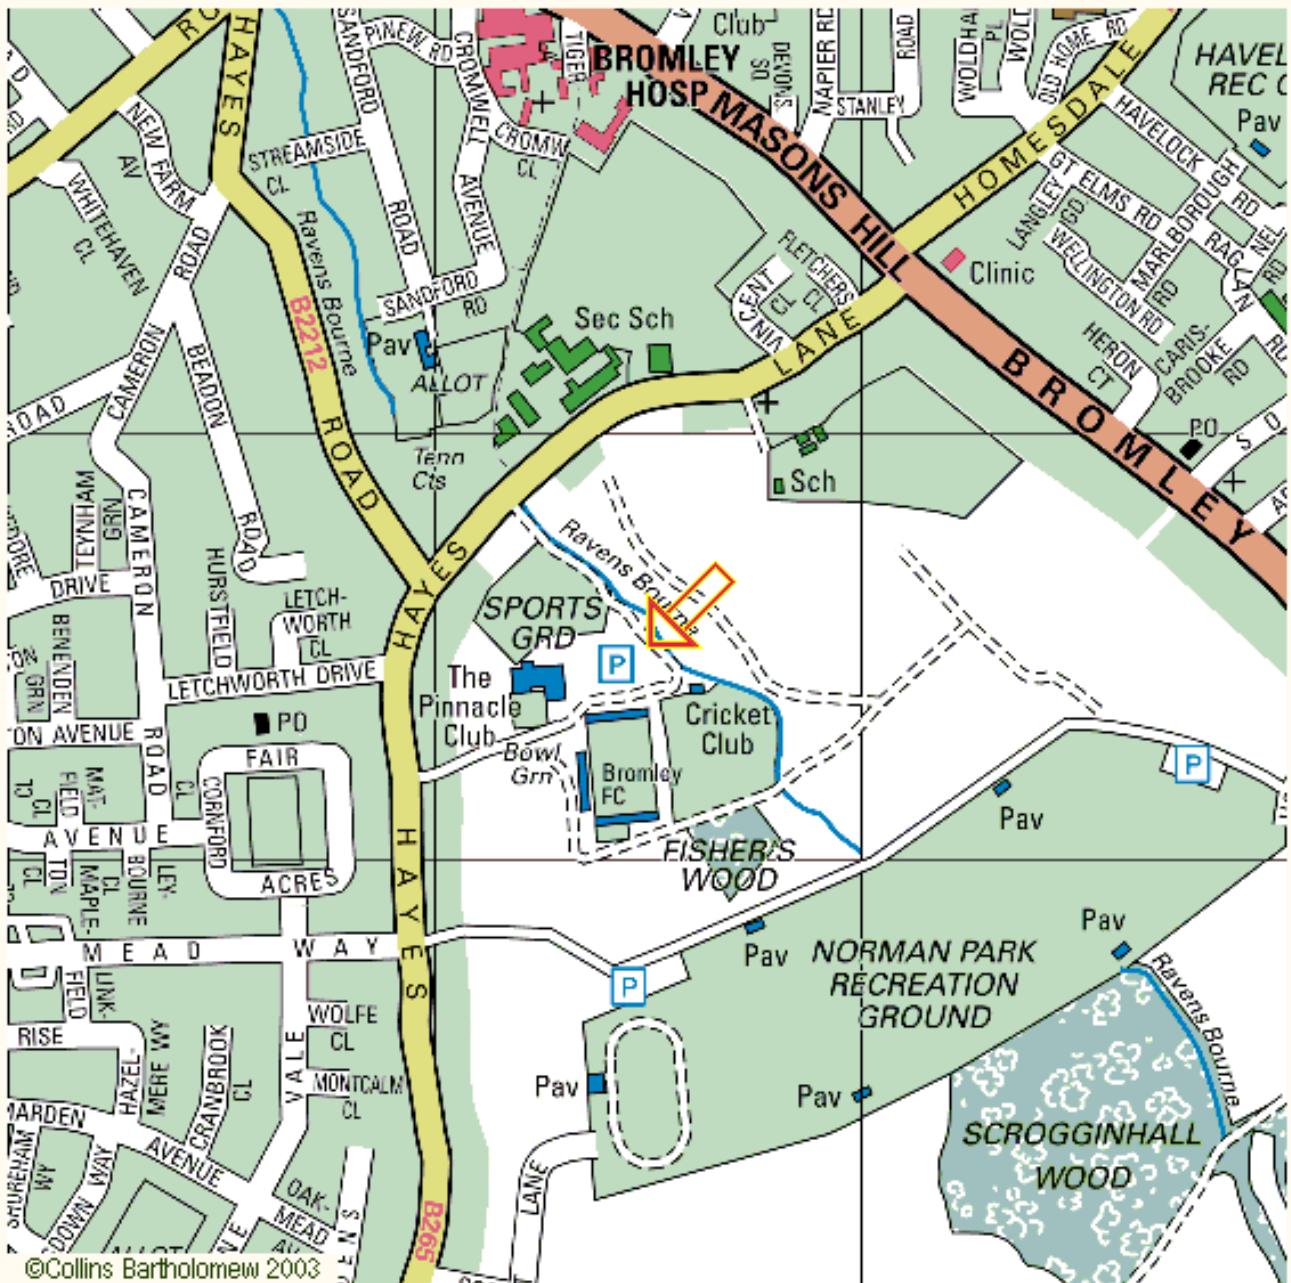

For Clubs not using M25 Motorway

Hayes Lane is situated between the A21 London to Hastings Road and the A232 Croydon to Orpington Road, and you are advised to avoid heavy congestion in Bromley Town Centre. However there is a 7ft width barrier from the A21 road in Hayes Lane, and coaches should not approach from this direction.

Clubs arriving from the Croydon/Surrey areas should use the A232 and turn left into Baston Road (B265), following it for about 2 miles as it becomes Hayes Street and then Hayes Lane. Bromley FC is on right hand side of road just after a mini roundabout.

Clubs arriving from West London should use South Circular Road as far as West Dulwich and then via Crystal Palace, Penge, Beckenham and Bromley South area.

Clubs arriving from North and East London should use the Blackwall Tunnel and then the A20 road as far as Sidcup. Then use the A232 to Keston Common, turn right into Baston Road (B265), following it for about 2 miles as it becomes Hayes Street and then Hayes Lane. Bromley FC is on right hand side of road just after a mini roundabout.

These routes may not be the most direct, but will cut out congestion in places such as Lewisham, Catford, Bromley and keep you away from traffic jams, particularly if you are travelling by coach.

Have a safe journey and we look forward to welcoming you to Hayes Lane.
